Shul News

Our next Motzi Shabbos Learning and Pizza, with Rabbi Wilensky, will take place on February 17th at 7:00 p.m. Don't miss this fantastic program for the whole family. This will be the final Parent Child Motzi Shabbos learning of the season—which your children will not want to miss. Please let us know you are coming so we order enough pizza. Sponsorships of $18, $36 and $54 are appreciated for this program.

Purim is Wednesday night Feb. 28th and Thursday, March 1st. Plan to join us on Wednesday night for Megillah reading, followed by a מסיבה for the children, with food, games, and fun. Then join us again on Thursday for our annual Purim Se'udah. Watch our announcements for more information soon.

PJ Library will kick off the Purim season on Sunday, Feb. 11th at the JDS, at 10:30 a.m., with a rainbow party. RSVP to Sara at 610-437-0721 or sschonbach@jdsiv.org.

Mazel Tov to Gila Hornstein and her family on the occasion of her Bat Mitzvah.

The LIFE AND LEGACY program is a community-wide project aiming to ensure the lasting future of our shul and of our larger Jewish community. Talk to us to learn more about creating your legacy.

The annual AIPAC Policy Conference will take place Sunday, March 4th through Tuesday March 6th. Please join Rabbi Wilensky and the Sons of Israel team as they head down to Washington D.C. to advocate for Israel. To find out more information, please call our shul office.

Thank you to our Annual Gala chairs, Nicole and Jarrod Rosenthal, for all of their time and energy making our Gala so memorable and successful. Thank you, as well, to their committee, Kira Bub, Rachel Boonswang, and Lorrie Scherline.

Mazel Tov to Deborah Degani and Alex Hornstein on the engagement of Deborah's daughter, Shira, to Jonathan Selechnik of Guatemala.
